

BeVera

Data Science and Leadership Training

Leadership Ethics

In this course, we will be exploring the topic of ethics and morals and why they are important to your organization and culture. We will delve into the different types of ethical dilemmas that arise in leadership, as described by Rushworth Kidder, including justice vs. mercy, few vs. many, short-term vs. long-term, and truth vs. loyalty.

Moreover, we will examine organizational ethical fading and its various types, practical examples, how to identify it, and how to avoid it. Through interactive discussions and activities, you will have the opportunity to explore different ethical scenarios and develop ethical decision-making skills. By the end of the course, you will have a better understanding of ethics and morals and why they are important in leadership.

About Our Trainer

Phillip Panzarella is a proven positive leader, executive coach, team builder, entrepreneur, and trusted partner with extensive experience in achieving extraordinary results. He assists individuals, teams, and organizations through Executive Coaching, Mentorship, and Business Consulting. Throughout his extensive career as a business leader and entrepreneur, Phil held a number of leadership positions (C-Suite) in both for-profit and non-profit organizations where he assisted organizations in achieving their business goals.

Learning Objectives

- What are ethics /morals?
- Why important to your organization / culture?
- It is not just right versus wrong Dilemmas! (Rushur Kidder)
 - Justice vs. Mercy
 - Few vs. Many
 - Short-term vs. long-term
 - Truth vs. loyalty
- Organizational Ethical Fading
 - What is it?
 - Types of ethical fading
 - Practical examples
 - How to identify them?
 - How to avoid?

For scheduling and/or assistance
call us at: 678.432.0218

or email us at info@beverasolutions.com

BeVera Solutions, LLC
8455 Hwy. 85
Bldg. 500, Suite 210
Riverdale, GA 30274
www.beverasolutions.com

